IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

I am delighted to announce that I have today purchased the Papier Poudre business from Concord Filing Products Limited and will be trading the business as Papier Poudre Limited.

The website address, for the moment, remains as you have accessed and you can still download your order form. Very shortly I will be advising you of changes to the website that will enable you to place online orders.

To this end, if you would like to email your contact details to michele@papierpoudre.com I will make sure you are updated about changes as they happen.

I am looking forward to supplying you your requirements and have plans to develop the range of products we can offer you.

In the meantime, if you require any further information please feel free to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Michele Moorhead
